

And the Land Shall Be Made Good Again

George K. Staropoli

*In the beginning
There was the land,
And the land was good
And the people were happy.*

*Soon upon the land
Came the moneychangers
In the guise of builders
Of the community.*

*And the moneychangers said Behold, the covenants, conditions and restrictions
Were sacred and holy works,
And the people shall flourish and
prosper.*

*And the legislature looked upon these C&R's
And said they were sacred and holy,
And that land values shall multiply ten-fold,
And the people shall flourish and
prosper.*

*But the moneychangers were not content,
Seeking laws that forced the people Against their judgment and wishes*

Into mandated planned communities.

*Soon, the multitude became angry at their plight,
Yet the moneychangers and legislature
Cast the people into involuntary servitudes
With continued tithes while disputes went unresolved.*

*The child-like people, seeking paradise
On earth and the gates of heaven,
Were not permitted audiences
With the magistrates.*

*And so the multitude suffered A long and terrible time, Praying for a savior one day
To deliver them from their existence.*

*One sect sought the accomodation With the ruling powers and moneychangers.
Another sought a cleansing
Of an unworkable oppression upon the people.*

*Those seeking accommodation held fast to their desires To see their fortunes on earth multiply ten-fold,
And that all such plans were good and just,
For the land values increased for all

*But many saw the desecration of the beliefs, values and ideals Of the founders of the Great Nation that covered the land, Saying behold the society that thou hast created,
Where Me First has replaced Love Thy Neighbor.*

*A babble of communities arose By the followers of the
moneychangers,
With beliefs, values and ideals of the Old Ways,
Once rejected by the Founders of the Great Nation.*

*Woe unto the followers of the
For the sins of the fathers shall be cast upon the sons.
Repent now and restore the beliefs,
values and ideals
Of the Great Nation and make the land good once again.*
